

Were women born to work hard at home in order to get cuter?

construct #1:

Women should stay at home cleaning, while the men do the real job out there, because they have a bigger brain!

Stephen Jay Gould, in his essay "Women Brains" compares the women and men's brain, and he conclude saying that women have a smaller brain, which make women less intelligent than men. Gould said that women have a smaler brain, this matters because he offending women, and he is aslo being stereotyped.

However

Women, might not have the biggest brain but yet, women has been the most succesful sex in the world. Women didnt just stayed the way they were born, they fought for rights and freedom. Now they have it and this means that stereotypes between men and women is disappearing; however the role of "housewife" is not only the women role, is also the men.

women ha to be there for men, to make them feel good about themselves

SO THE HARDER A WIFE WORKS, THE CUTER SHE LOOKS!

I GOSH, HONEY, YOU SEEM TO THRIVE ON COOKING, CLEANING AND DUSTING AND I'M ALL ~~TUCKERED OUT BY~~ Now in day, CLOSING TIME. WHAT'S THE ANSWER?

Gretel Ehrlich, in "About Men", mentions that "woman are fragile but no one is as fragile as a man". Just like Ehrlich says that man are fragile, this means that women have to be there to take care of them, and be there to make them feel good.

construct #2:

What does being a man means, in the manly language?

"Being a Man" by Paul Theroux, he stablsh a meaning to the phrase Be a man: "Be stupid, be unfeeling, obedient, soldierly and stop thinking." He believes that men are just following what society had thought them, ultimately, what is at stake here is that males are following what society and history had thought them.

no woman wants to marry a man that follows what society says, "house work is for women only", they shouldnt be stereotypes in the world no mo no woman wants to be there to make a man feel better, or to try to show that everything is right when everything its going wrong.
