Apply problem-solving strategies to technical words or proper nouns that are challenging	Use the context of a sentence, paragraph, or whole text to determine the meaning of a word
Remember the details of complex plots with many episodes	Search for information in graphics
Remember information in summary form over chapters	Make a wide range of predictions based on personal experiences, content knowledge, and knowledge of similar texts
Change predictions as new information is gathered from a text	Bring knowledge from personal experiences to the interpretation of characters and events
Make connections between character in different texts	When reading chapters, connected short stories, or sequels, incorporate new knowledge to better understanding characters and plot from material previously read
Demonstrate understanding of characters (traits, how and why they change), using evidence	Infer the meaning of symbols that the writer is using
Speculate on alternate endings that the text may have	Notice writer's use of symbolism
Hypothesize how characters could have behaved differently
